

Examination for prospective candidates for the office of Property Valuation Administrator will be conducted

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 2013
EAGLE LAKE CONVENTION
CENTER
1000 EAGLE LAKE DRIVE
(Junction of US 127 and Hwy 151)
LAWRENCEBURG, KENTUCKY 40342

The exam will begin at 9:00 a.m. local time.

Answers to Commonly Asked Questions Regarding the Qualifying Examination for the Office of Property Valuation Administrator

Prepared by:
Finance and Administration Cabinet
Department of Revenue
Office of Property Valuation

Why is the PVA Exam given?

Kentucky Revised Statute (KRS) 132.380 states that “before any person’s name shall appear before the voters on election day as a candidate for the office of property valuation administrator . . . he shall hold a certificate issued by the department, showing that he has been examined by it and that he is qualified for the office.”

When and where can I take the examination?

The examination will be given on Nov. 8, 2013 at 9:00 a.m. (local time), at Eagle Lake Convention Center, 1000 Eagle Lake Drive, Lawrenceburg, KY. This will be the only opportunity to take the examination for counties in which at least one person (including the incumbent) is qualified to be a candidate.

Are there any other requirements for the position of Property Valuation Administrator?

Candidates must be 24 years old by the time they take office and must have resided in the state of Kentucky for two years and in the county in which they wish to hold office for one year prior to taking office.

How do I prepare for the examination?

No “study guide” exists for the PVA qualifying examination. The examination is 100 questions consisting of three parts: vocabulary; reading comprehension; and mathematical questions.

Am I allowed to use a calculator?

Calculators will be provided. In order to give all candidates an equal advantage, only those calculators supplied by the department are allowed to be used during the PVA Exam.

Do I have to preregister for the examination?

No. Registration is conducted at the examination site. The doors to the examination room will open approximately 30 minutes before the exam begins to allow enough time to complete registration.

Is there a fee to take the examination?

No. There is no charge for taking the examination

Do I need to bring anything to the examination?

You will need your driver’s license or other photo identification. All testing materials (pencils, etc.) will be provided at the examination site.

How long do I have to complete the examination?

Candidates are allowed three and one half hours to complete the examination.

When do I find out if I passed the examination?

A list of persons passing the PVA exam will be posted on the Department of Revenue web-site within three days of the exam. This web-site may be found at <http://revenue.ky.gov>. Each person taking the test will be personally notified of the results of the examination via mail within two weeks. A certificate of qualification will be issued to each passing candidate. This certificate must be shown to the county clerk by each candidate when filing for office. The Department of Revenue will notify the county clerks of all persons holding certificates in their counties. All certificates expire within one year of the date of issuance.

What is a Property Valuation Administrator’s salary?

The PVA’s salary is established by statute (KRS 132.590) and varies by county. Like other locally elected county officials, it is based on population and increases with tenure.

How may I obtain more information?

Contact the Department of Revenue, Office of Property Valuation, at (502) 564-8175 or visit the web-site: <http://revenue.ky.gov>.